The First TV Soap Opera

soap op-e-ra /'sɒp.əˈpɪr.ə/ [C] a television or radio story about the daily lives of the same group of people, which is broadcast regularly

The first TV soap opera (a) appeared (appear) on American television just after the Second World War. Its name (b) was (be) Faraway Hill and it (c) started (begin) on 2nd October 1946. A famous Broadway actress, Flora Campbell, (d) played (play) Karen St. John, a rich New York woman who (e) went (go) to live with her relatives in the country after her husband (f) died (die). She soon (g) met (meet) a handsome young farmer, and of course the two immediately (h) fell (fall) in love. Unfortunately, the farmer (i) was (be) already engaged to Karen's cousin, who (j) didn't know (know) nothing about the relationship. When she (k) found (find) out, things (l) got (get) very, very difficult for Karen. The producers of Faraway Hill (m) had (have) very little money – each programme (n) cost (cost) only $300 – so they (o) made (make) them as quickly as possible. Because there (p) was (be) no time for the actors to learn their words each week, assistants (q) wrote (write) them on blackboards. Because of this, they often (r) looked (look) into the distance with a strange, romantic expression on their faces ... as they (s) read (read) their words from the boards on the other side of the studio!

Negatives and affirmatives

3 Correct these sentences about Faraway Hill.

- a The first TV soap opera appeared before the Second World War.

It didn't appear before the Second World War; it appeared after the Second World War.

- b It began in October 1936.

- c It was about a rich farmer who moved to New York.

- d The woman fell in love with her cousin.

- e Her lover was married to her cousin.

- f The producers of the programme had a lot of money.

- g The assistants wrote the actors' words on pieces of paper.

4 Yesterday evening Ruth had her first date with Oliver. Her younger sister, Emma, is asking her about it.

a Complete Ruth and Emma's conversation with was/wasn't, were/weren't or did/didn't.

E: So how (1) was your evening with Oliver?

R: It (2) was good. Yes, very good.

E: Mm ... where (3) did you go?

R: To see the new James Bond film.

E: (4) Was it good?

R: Well, it (5) wasn't really the kind of film I like, you know, I'm not a James Bond fan, but it (6) was quite funny.

E: And (7) did you go anywhere after that?

R: We went to that new bar opposite the cinema – a few of Oliver's friends (8) were there.

E: (9) Were they nice?

R: The boy, James, (10) was quite nice, but the two girls (11) weren't very friendly – they (12) didn't talk to me at all, not a word.

E: That (13) was very nice! How rude!

R: But, anyway, they (14) didn't stay long – they left after about twenty minutes ... and then we stayed and talked for an hour or two ... he (15) was really, really funny!

E: Mm, very nice! (16) Did he buy you dinner?

R: No ... but he bought me a few drinks ...

E: Mm, and (17) did he bring you home in his new sports car?

R: Yes ... why?

E: So, (18) was he very romantic?

R: Emma, mind your own business!

E: And (19) did he ask to see you again?

R: Yes, he (20) did, actually ... now go away!

E: Mm ... very interesting!

Listen and read

9 a T2.2 Read and listen to the text about TV classics.

TV Classics

What are the most popular TV programmes in your country? Here are five classic TV programmes which are famous in many parts of the world.

Baywatch

Internationally, Baywatch is the most popular TV show in history. Baywatch has appeared in 148 countries in every continent – except Antarctica! – which means that about one half of the world's population has seen it at some time. From its first episode in 1989, this TV drama had everything: beautiful young men and women in swimming costumes, fantastic sunshine and perfect California beaches. And it wasn't just men who liked it. Sixty-five percent of the people watching it were female.

Walking with Dinosaurs

Walking with Dinosaurs first appeared on British television in 1999. Using modern computer technology, it showed dinosaurs walking, eating, sleeping and fighting sixty-five million years before TV! The series cost six million pounds and it took three years to make. Some scientists said that the programme invented facts about how the dinosaurs lived, but that wasn't a problem for the millions of people who watched it. When it appeared on The Discovery Channel, it became the most popular documentary programme ever on cable TV. The series has appeared in more than ninety countries.

Pop Idol

In 2001, British music boss Simon Cowell had the idea of a TV 'talent show' for members of the public who wanted to be pop singers. Thousands of singers – good and bad – appeared in front of three judges and TV viewers could vote for the best ten by telephone, text message or over the Internet. The idea was a big success internationally, and the United States soon had its own American Idol. Similar shows appeared all over the world, from Russia to the Arab world. Diana Karzon, nineteen, from Jordan won the first Arab Super Star in August 2004.

Fawlty Towers

In this classic British comedy of the 1970s, John Cleese plays Basil Fawlty, the owner of a hotel in a small town by the sea. Basil is always angry: angry with his wife, Sybil, angry with the people who work in his hotel (including Manuel, the waiter from Spain) and even angry with the hotel guests. The last episode of Fawlty Towers appeared more than thirty years ago, but you can still see this classic British comedy all over the world.

Big Brother

Some people loved it, some people hated it, but one thing is certain: Big Brother – the world's first reality TV show – changed TV for ever. What happens when you put a group of young men and women in a house together and allow them no contact with the world outside? And what happens if they are on television twenty-four hours a day? A Dutchman called John De Mol had the original idea, and the first Big Brother appeared on TV in the Netherlands in 1999. More than twenty countries have had their own Big Brothers since then.

b Read the text again and complete the information below with a name or number.

- JODIE: You're so lucky Ed, you (a) don't have to get up early every day and go to school.
- ED: Yes, I know, but now I (b) have to find a job.
- JODIE: That's not so bad – at least you (c) don't have to do homework every night.
- ED: True, but I (d) have to write application letters and make lots of phone calls. It's boring!
- JODIE: Not as boring as school – and you (e) don't have to wear a horrible uniform.
- ED: Well no, but I (f) have to wear smart clothes when I go to a job interview.
- JODIE: Hm, but you (g) don't have to answer the teacher's questions all day ...
- ED: What about the questions at the interview? I (h) have to try to answer those.

Complete the conversation with the correct form of have to or can.

- BEN: Is it true that there are two driving tests?
- INSTRUCTOR: That's right: you (a) have to take a written test and a practical – that's where you're on the road with the examiner.
- BEN: (b) Can I take the practical test first, please?
- INSTRUCTOR: No, I'm sorry. You (c) can't take that test until you've passed the written one.
- BEN: Hm ... Is the written test very difficult?
- INSTRUCTOR: No, not really. There are fifty questions, but the good news is you (d) don't have to answer all of them correctly. You (e) have to get 45 correct answers, so you (f) can make a few mistakes and still pass.
- BEN: (g) Can you give me some advice about how to prepare for the written exam?
- INSTRUCTOR: Learn all the rules of the road! But there are thousands, so you (h) can't remember everything at once – you (i) have to study a little bit every day.
- BEN: OK. How about the practical exam?
- INSTRUCTOR: Well, on the day, the examiner (j) has to see your driving licence. Then he asks you to read a number plate to check you (k) can see OK.

- BEN: That sounds easy ... (l) Can I take my test straight away?
- INSTRUCTOR: Impossible! You (m) have to learn to park first – you won't pass if you (n) can't park your car!

Up to eighteen
- How many hours should we sleep?
eight
- Give three reasons why it is bad for you to sleep for less than six hours a day.
- How many hours do most people sleep? 7
- Do older people need less sleep than younger people?
no
- Does sleeping more than ten hours help you to wake up early the next day?
no

The Secrets of Sleep

Babies do it for up to eighteen hours a day: Mrs Thatcher and Napoleon both said they only needed to do it three or four hours a night. Sleep. No one can live without it. But how much do we really need?

Research by the National Sleep Foundation in Washington says that we all need eight hours' sleep every night. Scientists have found that people who sleep for less than six and a half hours a night are more often ill than people who sleep for eight hours. Going without sleep also increases the chance of serious illness. 'Workaholics' who sleep for less than five hours often die young, and do less well at work.

The scientists found that, on average, adults sleep for seven hours a night, with thirty-two percent sleeping less than six hours. It also says that the idea that we need less sleep as we get older is completely untrue. 'People have no idea how important sleep is to their lives,' Dr Thomas Roth, director of the Foundation says. 'Good health needs good sleep.'

'But not too much of it,' says Professor Jim Horne of Loughborough University. 'Sleep is like food and drink,' he believes: 'you would always like to have a little bit more, but that doesn't mean you need it.' Professor Horne studied a group of people who could spend as many hours as they wanted in bed; after ten hours they didn't find it any easier to get up in the morning. And people who sleep for more than nine hours a night die younger than people who usually sleep for seven or eight!

Religious festivals around the world

Islamic festivals – Ramadan

Because the Islamic religion uses a calendar based on the moon, not the sun, the exact date of religious festivals changes from year to year. The Islamic calendar begins with the hijra, the year when Mohammed left the city of Mecca for Medina. The New Year is a time for peaceful prayer for most Muslim people. Every year, in the month of Ramadan – the ninth month of the Islamic calendar – all Muslims fast from early morning until evening. By living without everyday comforts, even for a short time, a fasting person better understands the life of poor people who are hungry, and also grows in his or her spiritual life.

Easter in Poland

In Poland, there are many customs at Easter: for example, the 'blessing basket', containing (among other things) coloured eggs, bread, salt and white sausages. Everything in the basket has a meaning: the eggs represent Christ, the bread, salt and sausages good health and enough money in the coming year. The family Easter breakfast on Sunday morning is as important as Christmas dinner for Poles. And there is one more Polish tradition connected with Easter Monday: 'watering'. People throw water at each other, and this is a wish for good health, too. Even strangers on the street are not safe from a bath of cold water on Easter Monday!

A Hindu festival – Diwali

The festival of Diwali is one of the most important religious festivals in India. It lasts for five days around the end of October. It is the festival of Laxmi, the Goddess who, in the Hindu religion, brings peace and prosperity.

Preparations for the festival begin several weeks before the festival itself. People clean and decorate their homes, prepare special food and buy new clothes and jewellery to welcome the Goddess into their homes. All over India, people light up their homes with oil lamps and colourful lights.

The celebrations take place on the darkest night of the lunar month, Amavasya. In the evening, fireworks fill the sky to make Diwali a true 'Festival of Light'.

Hi everyone!
I can't believe we're finally in Bangkok, it's fantastic, very hot and crowded (a bit like the office really...), lots to see and do; the food is really good (some dishes almost as hot as the weather!). Today we visited the famous Golden Temple and tomorrow we're going on an excursion to an island called Ko Sichang.
Don't work too hard! See you when we get back.
Grill & Ruth
PS: Give our love to the big boss!

B

Dear Tanya,
Your father and I are spending a few days here at the seaside. The weather has been very wet so far, and unfortunately dad has got a bad cold so we can't go out; not much fresh air. We've seen some good programmes on TV, though. Hope you're enjoying yourself in London,
Mum

Dear Jo,
I'm sure you'll be surprised to get a card from me, but here I am! Last night we spent our first night out in the desert, and I must say it was fantastic. I never knew there were so many stars. And that it could be so quiet. I miss you, darling, and you know I'll be back one day. I just need some time, that's all. I hope you understand.
All my love,
K x

Listen and read

11 a T8.3 Read and listen to the text about volcanoes.

Volcanoes

We have all seen pictures like this from time to time ... perhaps you live in a country where there are volcanoes.

Here are some of the most frequently asked questions about volcanoes.

What are volcanoes?

A volcano is a mountain or hill with an opening through which steam, gases and lava from the centre of the Earth can escape into the air.

What is lava?

Lava is red-hot rock which comes to the Earth's surface through the volcano. It has a temperature of about $1,000^{\circ}\text{C}$ – ten times hotter than boiling water! Lava can move as fast as 55 kph ... faster than most animals can run.

How many volcanoes are there in the world?

There are about 850 active volcanoes in the world. About sixty percent are in an area called the Ring of Fire in the Pacific Ocean. The largest active volcano is Mauna Loa on the island of Hawaii.

What's the difference between 'active' and 'extinct' volcanoes?

An active volcano can erupt at any time. Extinct volcanoes are volcanoes that have stopped erupting.

What happens when they erupt?

A volcano erupts when there is a violent escape of gases and lava from the volcano. In 79 AD, Mount Vesuvius in Italy erupted, destroying the Roman city of Pompeii. The worst volcanic disaster in the twentieth century was in Martinique, a French island in the Caribbean Sea. A volcano called Mount Pelée near the town of St Pierre erupted on the morning of 8th May 1902. Of the 30,000 people in St Pierre, just two survived.

Can we predict when a volcano is going to erupt?

Nowadays, scientists usually know when a volcano is going to erupt. In 1991, the Pinatubo volcano, 100 kilometres northwest of Manila in the Philippines, began one of the largest eruptions of the twentieth century. Thanks to the scientists' warnings, more than 100,000 people left the area before the volcano erupted on 15th June.

b Complete the notes below with a name or number.

- 1 temperature of lava
 $1,000^{\circ}\text{C}$
- 2 speed at which lava can move

- 3 number of active volcanoes in the world

- 4 percentage of volcanoes which are in the Ring of Fire

Your Daily Horoscope for Wednesday 17 May by Sylvia Fox

Taurus

You might have an argument with an important person today. If this happens, you'll need help. A friend or partner will be very useful to you. And who knows ... you might win the argument!

Gemini

This will be another busy work day for you: you'll have all the normal things to do, but there may also be an extra job or two. But don't worry, you'll succeed! And think how happy you'll be when you finish!

Cancer

You may have to choose between your public and your private life today. You won't spend much time with your loved ones until later in the week. Make sure they know you love them, or they may feel forgotten.

Leo

This will be your lucky day for education! If you're still at school, it'll be a good day for study – something you've always thought was too hard for you will be easy. If you've already left school, think about going back to your studies – you won't regret it!

Virgo

There will be some money worries today. Check what you're spending – you may need to spend some extra money on travel, but if you buy something for a loved one, they may not thank you for it!

Saying thank you

12 a Look at the letter and e-mail.

- Which one is to thank someone for a birthday present?
- Which one is from the owner of the Paradiso Café?

Paradiso Café
Elm Street
2.4.05

Dear Maria, Gerard, Kurt and Minako,

I am writing to thank you for the wonderful job you did on the café. It is like a completely different place. Since its 'facelift', the number of customers has kept going up and up, and we now have regular customers who comment on the warm and welcoming atmosphere, the comfortable armchairs and the soft lighting and music. I hope you will all be able to come and have lunch here one day next week: on the house, of course. The menu you designed is very popular – especially the chocolate cake and the home-made ice cream!

Thank you once again,

George Prados

Hi Sandra!

This is just to say thanks so much for the DVD – where did you get it? I couldn't find it in the shops in town.

Anyway, you know I love Rowan Atkinson, and this is definitely his best – I spent half my birthday watching it!

You must come round one evening for something to eat, and we could watch it together, if you like.

Thanks again,
Jo

Flying Doctors

When baby Thomas James Ellis grows up, he will have a great story to tell his grandchildren about the day he was born.

On Tuesday 6 January 2004, Thomas was born several weeks early on a Flying Doctor aircraft as it landed at Tamworth Airport. Thomas' parents, Genienne and James Ellis, live in the outback, a long way from any towns.

'This is the third time the Flying Doctors have come to my aid. It's a wonderful organisation and I don't know what I would have done without them,' Genienne said.

The Flying Doctor service started in 1928. It was the idea of Reverend John Flynn, a church minister who was working in the Australian outback. He had many stories to tell about how necessary an aerial medical service was, including one about Jimmy Darcy. Jimmy had a bad fall, and it took his friends twelve hours to take him thirty miles to the nearest town. The only person there who knew first aid was the Postmaster, and he performed a seven-hour operation without anaesthetic, following instructions in Morse code from his first aid teacher, who was 2,000 miles away. Unfortunately, Jimmy died ten days later.

In May 1928, Dr St Vincent Welch made the first official flying doctor visit. In the following year he saw 255 patients. He had no radio, and used a compass and landmarks like rivers and fences to find his way. Nowadays the Royal Flying Doctor Service has forty-six planes, attends about 500 patients each day and services an area of 7,150,000 square kilometres. The service is available twenty-four hours a day, 365 days a year. Modern technology is also available: the doctors have digital cameras and video conferencing facilities. However, a pilot might still need the help of ordinary people on the ground when he is landing the plane in the outback: sometimes he asks them to do a 'roo run', which means driving up and down the landing area to frighten off kangaroos and other wild animals!

People who have never been to Australia have often heard of the Flying Doctors. In the 1980s a TV series was made about them, and shown in fifty countries. Also, next time you have an Australian $20 note, look more closely – the Flying Doctors and their founder, John Flynn, are on one 'face' of the note.

Dear Georgina,

I don't know if you will remember me: my name is Lucia Conti, and I was a friend of your mother's at university. My husband and I stayed at your house for a few days several years ago, when we were on holiday.

Anyway, I heard that you were studying here, and I was wondering if you would like to come and stay with us for the weekend, maybe next weekend or the one after that? We would love to see you, and I know what it is like to be away from home in a different country. You would also be able to try some authentic home-cooked Italian food – my husband is a great cook!

I'm looking forward to seeing you – just let me know when you can come and we will pick you up.

Best wishes,

Lucia Conti

Dear _____

First of all, congratulations! I am very happy for you. However, I'm afraid I won't be able to come to your engagement party because I am in Rome, studying Italian, until the end of August. What a shame! Have a wonderful time, and I hope to see you when I get back. All the best

Georgina

Dear _____

Thank you very much for inviting me to stay, it was so kind of you. I'd love to come, but next weekend I am going on an excursion with the school, so the one after that would be best for me.

I'm looking forward to trying your husband's cooking. Best wishes

Georgina

Listen and read

7 a T12.2 Listen to and read the text Diamonds are Forever.

Diamonds are forever

'Diamonds,' sang Marilyn Monroe in the film Gentlemen Prefer Blondes, 'are a girl's best friend.' You might not agree, but we can be sure of this: diamonds are not only the hardest substance in the world, they are also the most expensive. A single diamond cost $16.5 million when it was sold in Geneva in 1995!

Diamonds are found in a number of countries including Australia, South Africa and Brazil. In fact, there are two types of diamond; colourless diamonds (about 25% of those found) are the hardest and are often made into jewels. Black diamonds – the remaining 75% – are usually used by industry. Industrial diamonds are also produced artificially.

The largest diamond in history is the Cullinan diamond. It weighed 620g and was mined in South Africa in 1905. It was bought by the Transvaal government for £150,000, and then it was presented to the King of England, Edward VII. The diamond was cut into smaller jewels, which are now part of the British Crown Jewels, which belong to the Queen of England and are kept in the Tower of London.

Diamonds are also used for decoration. Between 1885 and 1917, the Russian jeweller Peter Carl Fabergé made a number of decorated Easter eggs for the tsars and their families. The most valuable of them is decorated with more than 3,000 diamonds. It was sold at Christie's, Geneva for $5.5 million.

b Using the information in the text, complete the sentences below with either the active or the passive form of the verb.

1 Marilyn Monroe / sing / Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend

Marilyn Monroe sang 'Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend'.

2 A $16.5 million diamond / sell / in Geneva / in 1995

3 Diamonds / find / in many countries, including South Africa and Brazil

4 Colourless diamonds / make / into jewels

5 Black diamonds / use / in industry

6 The Transvaal government / give / the Cullinan diamond to King Edward VII

7 The diamond / cut / into smaller diamonds

8 Peter Fabergé / make / egg which / sell / for $5.5 million at Christie's.

Success from abroad

Thomas Eckhardt: Thomas came to London from Germany almost four years ago. After doing a course in theatre costume design, he began working at the National Theatre in London a year ago. 'I really enjoy designing clothes, and I've always loved the theatre, so this job is absolutely perfect for me,' he says. 'I started work on a new production of Romeo and Juliet two weeks ago and I'm really excited about it.'

Bianca and Richard Jones: Bianca Jones is originally from Lima, in Peru. She came to England in 1997, and a year later she got married. For the last two years she has been manager of La Finca restaurant with her English husband, Richard. 'We were London's only Peruvian restaurant. It's been so successful that last week we opened a new restaurant – La Finca II.'

Kerry Paterson: When Kerry first came to England from Australia in 2000 she was a backpacker, travelling round Europe. She came back three years later and started working as a swimming coach about a year after that. Nowadays, she has a second, part-time job – playing in a jazz band. 'About a month ago, a friend heard that I could play the piano, and asked me to join his band. We play every weekend in local cafés and restaurants.'

Read and/or listen and check.

- a Is a real Earth year longer or shorter than 365 days?
- b Which is the lightest planet?
- c Which planet was farthest from the Sun in 1995?
- d What can be the size of a house?
- e Which planet has the most moons?
- f How long is a year on Mercury?
- g What is twenty-seven kilometres high?
- h Which planet is it possible to see without a telescope?
- i What lasts for just under ten hours?
- j Which planet has been mistaken for a UFO?
- k How many Earths could the Sun hold?
- l Which planet was discovered most recently?
- m Which planet goes round the Sun 'lying down'?
- n How many times has Neptune been round the Sun since it was discovered?

The Planets: did you know ...?

The Sun is a star – it is not a planet. It is so big that you could fit more than one million Earths inside it. The Sun is the only star we see during the daytime.

Mercury is thirty-six million miles from the Sun and has no moons. It takes eighty-eight days to go round the Sun (at thirty miles per second), which means that there are fewer than two days in a year.

Venus is the closest planet to the Earth. It has a very hot surface and no moons. It is the brightest planet and can sometimes be seen with the naked eye if you know where to look. It is sometimes the cause of UFO reports.

The Earth is orbited by one moon and is ninety-three million miles away from the Sun. The average year is actually 365 days, five hours, forty-eight minutes and 45.51 seconds. Three quarters of the Earth is covered by water.

Mars is a cold, red, rocky planet with two very small moons which orbit close to the surface. It is the home of the 'Olympus Mons', the largest volcano found in the solar system. It is twenty-seven kilometres high and its crater is eight-one kilometres wide.

Jupiter is the largest planet in the solar system, with sixteen moons. It spins very quickly on its axis, and one day lasts nine hours and fifty-five minutes.

Saturn has eighteen moons and is over 800 million miles from the Earth. It is the second biggest planet but also the lightest. If there was a bath big enough to hold Saturn, it would float in the water. It has rings round it made of ice: the particles of ice vary in size from a grain of sugar to a house.

Uranus is a giant gas planet which is over one billion miles away and has fifteen moons. Its axis is at a ninety-seven degree angle, which means it orbits lying on its side – talk about a lazy planet!

Neptune is a giant gas planet and has eight moons. It was discovered in 1846, but has still not made a complete orbit of the Sun. One Neptune year lasts 165 Earth years.

Pluto is over three billion miles from the Sun and has one moon. It is the farthest planet from the Sun, but sometimes its orbit brings it closer to the Sun than Neptune: from 1989 to 1999 it jumped ahead of Neptune, then went back to being the farthest. Pluto is the only planet that has not been visited by a spacecraft. Because it is so small, it was not discovered until 1930.

The journey was very, very long - ten weeks on a spaceship - ^{WW} then it was quite ^{Sp} boreing at times. I read all the books ^{WW} what you gave me during the first week, ^{WW} but I had to watch Space TV instead.

The other six people here are all very nice: one of them is a ^{Sp} docter from ^P france - his ^P names ^P rene.

Today we met our first Herovian (^P thats the name for the people ^{WW} which live here) and guess what? He speaks ^P english!

This morning I saw a small green person ^{Sp} siting on a wall, looking at me.

'Hello,' I ^{Sp} sayed, 'what's your name ^P !'

^P Fine, thanks, he answered, and ran away.

Anyway, it's ^{Sp} geting late, so I'd better go to bed. Give my love to all my ^{Sp} frends and family.

'Everybody thinks I'm a typical Englishwoman,' actress Kate Thomson told Go! magazine. 'I really don't know why ...'. When she was eighteen, Kate left England. She lived first in Canada, then Morocco, where she met French film producer Serge Roux. The couple now live in Paris with their three children: Patrick, James and Lucie. 'We're so happy here. It's nice to have children who can speak both English and French.'

Dear Tony,

Sorry I haven't written for so long, but I've been really busy with the new job. I hope you're well and still enjoying life at university.

The main reason I'm writing is to tell you that Valerie and I are staying at Uncle Frank's villa in Spain for the Easter holidays. Would you like to come and stay for a few days? The villa is in a really beautiful place, very near the beach. You can fly to Malaga airport and get a bus from there.

Can you give me a ring to tell me if you're interested? Our new phone number is 01804 742 3812. We'd love to see you!

See you soon,

Mark

- Leo, 3 Virgo, 4 Gemini, 5 Taurus

b

Taurus

You might have an argument with an important person today. If this happens, you'll need help. A friend or partner will be very useful to you. And who knows ... you might win the argument!

Gemini

This will be another busy work day for you: you'll have all the normal things to do, but there may also be an extra job or two. But don't worry, you'll succeed! And think how happy you'll be when you finish!

Cancer

You may have to choose between your public and your private life today. You won't spend much time with your loved ones until later in the week. Make sure they know you love them, or they may feel forgotten.

Leo

This will be your lucky day for education! If you're still at school, it'll be a good day for study – something you've always thought was too hard for you will be easy. If you've already left school, think about going back to your studies – you won't regret it!

Virgo

There will be some money worries today. Check what you're spending – you may need to spend some extra money on travel, but if you buy something for a loved one, they may not thank you for it!

- If you work hard, you'll pass all your exams.
- If you're late for class again, your teacher will get very annoyed.
- If you don't get up soon, you'll be late for class.
- If the train arrives on time, we'll be home before midnight.
- If you don't take a map, you'll get lost.
- If we see a restaurant, we'll stop for lunch.
