READING Part One

What is the task

In this part of the exam you will have to answer 6 questions. Each question will have a short text and 3 sentences A, B, C next to it. You have to choose the sentence that matches the meaning of the text. The text may be from a notice, a sign, information on a packet, a note, an email, a postcard or a text message. In other words, they will be from something that you may see in your everyday life.

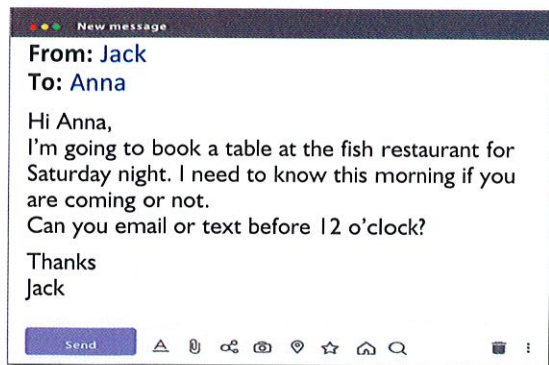

How to do the task

The first thing you should do is read the text and decide what it is. In other words is it a message, email, sign etc? Then look at the three possible answers. These will all say something about the text and you need to decide which of the three options matches the meaning of the text.

Look at each answer, one at a time, and see if it matches the text. Only one answer will be correct. When you have chosen your answer, check it one more time and also check the wrong answers and decide why they are wrong. By doing this you can be sure that you have chosen the correct answer.

Let's practise!

Look at the question below.

1. Read the text and decide what it is.

2. Who is sending it? Who are they sending it to?

3. Choose the correct answer.

- A. Jack wants Anna to book a table.
B. Jack needs Anna to make a decision.
C. Jack would like to take Anna out for lunch today.

Analysis and justification

- This is an email.
- It is being sent by someone called Jack, to a woman or girl called Anna who might be his friend or someone in his family.
- Answer A is not correct because Jack says that he is going to book the table; not Anna. Answer B is correct because Jack needs to know if Anna is going to go with him to the restaurant or not, on Saturday and that she needs to decide today. Answer C is not correct because they are talking about dinner on Saturday; not going out together today; and not for lunch. He asks her to email or text him, so it is unlikely that he is even going to see her today.

READING Part Two

What is the task

In this part of the exam you will be given three short texts and seven questions. You have to match the questions to the 3 texts. You will be looking for information in the questions that is in one of the three texts.

How to do the task

The first thing you should do is read each question to find out what information you need to look for in the texts. Underline any key (important) words so that you can easily see what information you are looking for. Don't forget that you may be looking for words that have a similar meaning rather than exactly the same words in the question and the text.

Then, for each question, quickly read the texts and find in which text you can find the information you are looking for. Again, underline the key words in the texts. When you have found the correct piece of text, you should read carefully to check whether that part of the text answers the question. Before choosing your final answer, you should check that the other texts do not contain anything that could answer the questions. If one of them does, you must decide which text best matches the question.

Let's practise!

Look at the questions below.

For each question choose the correct answer.

1. Who makes art that is hard to understand?

2. Who makes art from unusual things?

3. Who will probably be rich because of their art?

Young artists

A. Paul

I've been seriously making art for the last three years. I love to make art out of things that other people don't want. I go to markets to buy things really cheaply and I also use things that people have thrown in the rubbish.

B. Sandra

People say that my art is clever because it is like a photograph. A painting might take me months to paint because I want everything to be perfect. I sold my last painting for £40,000, so I don't mind that they take a long time to paint.

C. Janet

I like to use lots of paint and lots of bright colours. It doesn't matter that no one knows what it is because it is feelings that I am painting; not things. I usually do really big work, too, so they wouldn't be good for a small room.

Analysis and justification

- C. Janet is the correct answer. She says: 'It doesn't matter that no one knows what it is because it is feelings that I am painting; not things.'
- A. Paul is the correct answer. He says: 'I love to make art out of things that other people don't want. things that people have thrown in the rubbish.'
- B. Sandra is the correct answer because she sold her, 'last painting for £40,000.'

READING

Part Three

What is the task

In this part of the exam you will be given a longer text; for example, a newspaper or magazine article. There are five multiple-choice questions with three options, A, B and C. The questions will follow the same order as the information in the text.

How to do the task

You should first skim (quickly read) the text to find out the topic and the general meaning. Then read the text a second time more carefully. Look at each question and compare each possible answer with the text before choosing one. Then you should check your choice of answer carefully with the text again. When you are happy with your answer, check the other two answers and decide why they are wrong.

Let's practise!

For each question, choose the correct answer.

A Family of doctors

The Anderson family have been doctors for over seventy years. Diane Anderson is the youngest of the family to become a doctor. Both of her parents are heart doctors, but Diane decided that she wanted to help children and so she worked in a children's hospital for nearly ten years. However, a year ago, Diane made a big decision to stop working in hospitals and to work as a local doctor in the countryside. There are only 500 people living in the area so it is very quiet. So what made Diane make such a big change in her life? Well, Diane herself became very ill for a few months and she couldn't work. She then understood how people feel when they are ill, which made her better at her job.

1. What kind of doctor is Diane now?

- A. heart doctor
- B. village doctor
- C. doctor for children

2. What happened after Diane was sick?

- A. She became a better doctor.
- B. She thought about moving to another country.
- C. She wanted to stop being a doctor.

Analysis and justification

1. A. is not correct as Diane's parents are heart doctors; not her. B. is correct as she decided to 'work as a local doctor in the countryside.' C. is not correct as she used to be a doctor for children, but she changed her job.
2. A. is correct as after she had been very ill, 'She then understood how people feel when they are ill, which made her better at her job.' B. is not correct as she moved to the countryside, not to another country. C. is not correct because she is still a doctor, but she is just a different type of doctor now.

READING

Part Four

What is the task

In Part 4 of the reading test you have to read a short text with six numbered spaces. Then you will be given three words to choose from (A, B or C) to find the correct word to fill the space. These words will be testing your vocabulary rather than your grammar skills. Quite often, the words will be similar in meaning, or they will look similar, so you should be careful when you choose your answer.

How to do the task

First of all, you should quickly read the text (this is called skimming) to find out the topic and the general meaning. Then look at the six questions, by reading the whole sentence to choose the correct word to complete the gap. After choosing an answer, you need to check the other three options and decide why they are wrong. Once all the gaps are completed, you should read the whole text again, to make sure it makes sense. Remember some of the words might seem similar in meaning so you must check your answers carefully.

Let's practise!

For each question choose the correct answer.

Paul Cezanne

Paul Cezanne was born on 19 January 1839, in France. His father, Louis Auguste Cezanne, (1) a bank that was successful all through the artist's life. This meant that Cezanne had enough money to be an artist and he didn't have to choose a different (2)

His mother, Anne Elisabeth, loved life and she was very interesting. So, it was from his mother that Cezanne learned to enjoy life.

- | | | |
|----------------|----------------|------------|
| 1. A. borrowed | B. owned | C. earned |
| 2. A. career | B. appointment | C. company |

Analysis and justification

1. A. borrow: use or have something, but then return it. e.g. He borrowed money from the bank.
B. own: to have something that is yours. e.g. He owned a bank. (correct answer)
C. earn: to get money or something because you have worked to get it. e.g. He earned a lot of money working at the bank.
2. A. career: a job (that you do for years) - correct answer e.g. He has a successful career as an artist.
B. appointment: a time that you have to meet someone or go somewhere. e.g. I have an appointment with the doctor at 3 o'clock.
C. company: a business. e.g. I work for a large international company in Paris.

READING

Part Five

What is the task

Part 5 is similar to Part 4 in that you have a text with 6 missing words. However, in Part 5 you are not given a choice of 3 answers to choose from. Here, you have to find the missing word yourself, without any help. It's more your grammar that is tested here.

How to do the task

Just like you did in Part 4, you should skim (read quickly) the whole text to find out the topic and general meaning. Then look at each gap in turn and think of a single word that makes sense in the gap. Only use ONE word! Look at the words on either side of the gap to help you, as well as the whole sentence around it. Often, it will be a verb or a preposition. It is important that the word you write is spelled correctly. Once all the gaps are completed, read the text again to make sure it makes sense. Remember that often there will be clues to help you choose the right answer.

Let's practise!

For each question, write the correct answer. Write one word for each gap.

New message

From: Sandy
To: Peter

Hi Peter,

I hope you are well. We're having a really nice time here, in Brazil. There are lots (1) good restaurants here. After dinner we usually go to a bar to have a drink, and sometimes we (2) TV in our hotel room until very late (3) night.

Send

Analysis and justification

- lots of - lots (or, a lot) is always followed by of
- watch TV – a verb is needed here and watch is what we normally do in front of a TV set
- at night – preposition needed here. We always say at night, or, in the evening.

WRITING

Part Six

What is the task

In this part of the exam you have to write a short email, or a note of 25 words (or more). You will be given three things that you need to include in your answer.

How to do the task

The first thing that you need to do, is read the instructions carefully. Decide what kind of message it is and who it is for.

Look at what information is needed. You must write about all the three things that you have been asked to write about in the question. You should plan your answer before you write your final answer.

Let's practise!

You want to go to the cinema on Saturday with your English friend Jim.

Write an email to Jim.

In your email:

- ask Jim to go to the cinema with you on Saturday
- say what kind of film you want to see
- say how you will get there

Write 25 words or more.

Model Answer

Hi Jim!
Would you like to go to the cinema with me on Saturday? There is a new Star Wars film I want to see. We could go by bus as the bus stop is outside the cinema.
Write back soon,
Lynn

Analysis

If you read the model answer you can see that all of the three points are in the answer. The candidate has used a new sentence for each point so it is organised and easy to understand. The answer is 40 words long so it is more than the necessary 25 words, but it is not too long. Be careful because if you write too much you may not have time to answer question 32 (Part 7) of the exam.

WRITING Part Seven

What is the task

In Part 7 you have to write a short story of 35 words (or more) based on three pictures that you will be given. You will use these three pictures to make your short story.

How to do the task

First of all, read the instructions carefully. Look at the three pictures and decide what happens in the story. Look at the people, where they are, what they are doing and, also, what happens to them. Think of the vocabulary that you need to write the story.

You must use all three pictures in your story. You may need to write some notes to help you plan your story before you write your final answer.

Let's practise!

Look at the three pictures.

Write the story shown in the pictures.

Write 35 words or more.

Model Answer

Last Sunday, Jenny was walking with her dog, Spot. Suddenly, Spot saw a cat. He ran after the cat. Jenny could not find Spot anywhere. She was very worried and walked home alone. When she arrived at her house she saw Spot waiting for her. Jenny was very happy to see him.

Analysis

If you read the model answer you can see that all of the three pictures have been used in the story. The story is in the same order as the pictures. The candidate has written the story using good sentences and correct grammar. The answer is 56 words long, so the candidate has easily written more than the 35 words that are needed. As with Part Six, the story is not too long.

LISTENING Part One

What is the task

In Part 1 of the listening paper there are five short listenings, each with a question and three pictures. You will listen to the two speakers, and then choose the picture which best answers the question that you have been asked. You will be listening for specific information in Part 1. You will hear all the listenings twice.

How to do the task

First of all, read the question and look at the three pictures. By doing this you will know what you are listening out for and you will know your three possible answers.

During the first listening, you should listen for general understanding and choose the best option. When you listen for the second time, check that your answer is correct.

Let's practise!

For the question below choose the correct picture.

What was the weather like on Sunday morning?

Look at the script below and decide which one is the correct answer, A, B or C.

Script

G: Hi Dave, how was your picnic on Sunday? Did you still go?
I think it rained, didn't it?

B: Not until much later. We went home before it started.

G: That was lucky.

B: Yes, it was a lovely bright morning. Fortunately, we didn't go today with this strong wind.

Justification and analysis

A. Dave says it 'was a lovely bright morning' so this is the correct answer.

B. The girl thinks that it rained, but the boy says that it didn't rain until after lunch when they were back at home.

C. It wasn't windy on Sunday; it is windy today.

LISTENING Part Two

What is the task

In Part 2 of the listening paper you are given some notes or sentences, from which five pieces of information have been removed. As you listen to the speaker, you must fill in the numbered gaps with words from the listening which complete the missing information. The text that you will be given is notes on what the speaker has said.

Most answers will be single words or numbers such as prices, times, dates etc. You will hear the speaker twice. In this task you are listening for specific pieces of information.

How to do the task

First of all, you should begin by reading and listening to the instructions. Then, use the pause to read the text on the page, thinking about the context (what is happening and where) and guessing the sort of language and information you are going to hear. It may be information about places and events, or people talking about courses, trips or holiday activities.

You can use the order of the information on the page to help you follow the recording. The information you are listening for, will come in the same order as the listening. The first time you listen to the speaker, you should write down single words or numbers to complete each gap. The words that you need to complete the gaps are heard on the recording. Therefore, you shouldn't try to change the words. It is also important that you don't write in note form. You must write the words in full and try to spell them correctly.

If the answer involves a number you may either write the number in words e.g. ninety-eight, or you can write it in numbers e.g. 98. Both are acceptable.

During the second listening, check that your answers make sense in the context of the completed note or sentence and that each answer contains the correct piece of information. Again, you mustn't forget that it is important to check the spelling of your words. Words which are spelled out by the speaker must be 100% correct.

Let's practise!

Look at the script and find the answers to the questions. For each question, write the correct answer in the gap. Write one word or a number or a date or a time.

You will hear a university professor talking to a group of university students about a trip to Italy.

Italian trip

Date: 9th - 22nd August
 Number of students: (1)
 Must book by: (2)
 Price: (3) £

Script

Woman: Good afternoon. I want to tell you all about the summer camp. As most of you probably know, the camp is for two weeks in August. It starts on Monday 9th August until Sunday 22nd August.

We can't take more than 40 students, so if you want to go you need to let me know by Friday. The price for the camp is £400 and that includes your accommodation, your food and all the activities.

Analysis

You can see from the script that the answers come in the same order as the speaker gives you the information and they are all one-word answers.

Answers: 1. 40 2. Friday 3. 400

LISTENING Part Three

What is the task

In Part 3 of the listening paper, you will hear an informal conversation and you'll be asked to answer five 3-option multiple-choice questions. The answers will come from what both speakers say. You will be asked questions about what the speakers think and feel.

How to do the task

The first thing you should do is read, and then listen to the instructions to understand who the speakers are, where they are and what they are talking about. On the first listening, you can understand the general idea and meaning of the conversation and you can choose the best answer for each question. Then listen again carefully and check all your answers. Look, also, at the answers that you have not chosen and decide why they are wrong.

Let's practise!

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Look at the script to answer the questions.

You will hear Sandy talking to her friend Adam about her new job.

- Why did Sandy get a job?
 - to earn money
 - to make new friends
 - to have time away from her family
- What does Adam say they should do?
 - get better jobs
 - plan a holiday
 - not work in a bank

Script

Adam: Hi Sandy! How's the new job?

Sandy: It's great. I don't earn much money but I'm not doing it for the money really, and the work is quite easy. Also, I work with my two best friends who started working there before I did, so we have a lot of fun. The best thing is that I don't have to stay at home all day every Saturday, so I get a nice break from my family.

Adam: I know what you mean. I like having a job and it's good to have some money in the bank. You need to enjoy the money you earn, as well, however. Why don't we go away for a few days in the summer and see if some of our friends want to come with us, too?

Sandy: That's a fantastic idea!

Justification and analysis

- A is not correct because Sandy says: 'I'm not doing it for the money'.
B is not correct because she says: 'Also, I work with my two best friends'.
C is the correct answer as Sandy says: 'I get a nice break from my family'.
- A is not correct as Adam doesn't talk about changing their jobs at all.
B is correct as Adam says: 'Why don't we go away for a few days in the summer and see if some of our friends want to come with us, too.' So he is suggesting that they should go on holiday.
C is not correct as Adam says: '... it's good to have some money in the bank' so he is talking about saving money, not getting a job in a bank.

LISTENING Part Four

What is the task

In Part 4 of the listening paper, there are five short monologues or dialogues, each with a sentence, as well as a question and three answer options. The sentence helps you understand the context. You have to listen to the speaker(s) carefully and then choose the option which best answers the question. You hear each piece twice.

How to do the task

Quickly read the question and possible answers first. Look for key words in the questions that you can listen for. During the first listening you should focus on a general understanding of what the speaker, or speakers, say(s) and choose the best option. Then use the second listening to check the answer is correct.

Let's practise!

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Look at the script and find the answers to the questions.

You will hear two college friends talking about an exam.

Which exam did the girl do today?

- Art
- History
- Geography

Script

B: Hi Susie. How was your geography exam?

G: It was easier than I thought it would be, but today's exam wasn't good at all.

B: Really? I thought it was OK.

G: I couldn't remember the dates for anything. I think I was too tired to take a history test this morning.

B: Never mind. We've got our art exam tomorrow and you are fantastic at art.

G: Yes, I'm not worried about that one.

Justification and analysis

A is not correct, as the boy says that they have their art exam tomorrow.

B is the correct answer because she says: 'today's exam wasn't good at all' and then she says that she, 'was too tired to take a history test this morning' so she is talking about history.

C is not correct, as she did the geography exam before today and she thought it was quite easy.

LISTENING Part Five

What is the task

In Part 5 of the listening paper you will listen to a longer conversation between two people who know each other. You will have a list of 5 items (plus one example) and a second list of 8 items that are similar. For example, the first list might be a list of week days, people names, places etc. The second list might be a list of activities, birthday presents, food, hobbies, TV programmes etc. You must match the items in the first list with the items in the second list.

How to do the task

First you should read and listen to the instructions. Then read the questions and think about what the listening is going to be about. You should listen for the first time to get the general meaning of the recording and then choose the best option for each question. Then listen again and check all the answers carefully.

Let's practise!

Look at the script and find the answers to the questions. For each question, choose the correct answer.

You will hear Thomas talking to Helen about a friend's birthday. What present will each person bring to the birthday party?

- | | |
|-----------|---------------|
| 1. Helen | A. DVD |
| | B. chocolates |
| 2. Thomas | C. book |
| | D. gloves |
| 3. Eve | E. flowers |

Script

Thomas: Hi Helen. We need to plan everything for Barbara's party, don't we?

Helen: Yes. As you know, I have bought her the new Lady Gaga DVD. I was going to buy her flowers but they only last for a few days.

Thomas: Yes, I thought about flowers, too, but then I thought she might need some new gloves for walking her dog.

Helen: Oh! That's a good idea. Is Eve still buying her a book?

Thomas: No, you know what Eve is like. She decided to buy her chocolates instead. She buys everyone chocolates.

Justification and analysis

- A – Helen clearly says at the beginning that she bought a Lady Gaga DVD.
- D – Thomas says that he thinks Barbara might need gloves for walking her dog, so he bought her gloves.
- B – At first, Helen thinks that Eve has bought Barbara a book, but then Thomas says that she changed her mind and bought her chocolates.

SPEAKING Part One
(3-4 minutes)

What is the task

In Part 1 - Phase 1 of the speaking paper the examiner starts a general conversation with each of the candidates. You will be asked easy questions about yourself such as, 'Where are you from?' or 'How old are you?' Most candidates feel quite nervous at the beginning of the Speaking paper. However, what you should know is that this conversation uses everyday, simple language which will help you to relax.

Part 1 - Phase 2: the examiner is going to ask you two short-answer questions about your daily life, interests, likes, dislikes etc. followed by one longer question, eg. 'Tell me something about ...'.

You will only talk to the examiner. You will not talk to the other candidate in this task.

How to do the task

You should listen carefully to the questions and make sure that you give answers that actually answer the questions. Do not talk about other things that you have not been asked about. Also, try not to give one-word answers, but make your answers longer by giving reasons and examples wherever possible. However, you will not be expected to give very long answers in this part of the test. If you do not understand what the examiner has asked you, you should ask him/her to repeat it.

Let's practise!

Phase 1

Candidate A/B,

Where do you live? (Do you live in?)

Where do you come from? (Are you from?)

How old are you? (Are you over 18 years old?)

Model answer

I now live in Milan, Italy, in a quiet area. It is very nice there.

I'm from Spain. Spain is a very beautiful country.

I'm 19 years old. I'm a student at a university in Milan.

It's a very good university in a beautiful building.

Phase 2

Now let's talk about friends.

Candidate A/B

What do you like to do with your friends?

(Where do you like to go?)

How often do you see your friends?

(Do you see them every day?)

Now let's talk about your home.

Candidate A/B

How big is your home? (Is it a house/flat?)

What is your street like? (Is it quiet/noisy?)

Model answer

I like to go for walks in the park with my friends and we often play basketball. If the weather is bad, I like going to the cinema with them and we usually have a coffee after.

I see my friends once or twice during the week. I usually see some of my friends at the weekend, too, when I don't do something nice with my family.

My home is quite small. It's a flat, really, with two small bedrooms, a living room, a kitchen and a bathroom.

I live on a very busy street in the middle of the city. There are lots of people and cars there, so it is often very noisy.

SPEAKING

Part Two
(5-6 minutes)

What is the task

In Part 2 - Phase 1, you have to talk to the other candidate. The examiner will tell you what to do but they do not talk to you when you are doing the task. You and your partner will have a discussion based on five pictures on a topic.

You will be asked to talk about the activities, things or places in the pictures. After 1-2 minutes, the examiner will ask you some questions based on these activities, things or places (the ones in the pictures). At the end of Phase 1 the Examiner will ask both you and your partner the same short-answer question which is related to the topic of your discussion.

In Part 2 - Phase 2, the examiner will ask you both two more questions on the same topic.

How to do the task

You should look at the pictures carefully and think about the activity, place or thing in each picture. Try to talk about all of the activities, things or places, saying which ones you like and which ones you dislike, and why. Try to give longer answers and also try to reply to what your partner says.

You can say what you think about your partner's answers and ask her/him questions to keep the conversation going.

Let's practise!

Phase 1 (3-4 minutes)

In this part of the test you are going to talk together.

Here are some pictures that show different hobbies. Do you like these hobbies? Say why or why not.

All right? Now talk together.

SPEAKING

Part Two
(5-6 minutes)

Model answers

Candidate A: For me the most pleasant hobby here is playing computer games because there are lots of different games which are very interesting.

Candidate B: I agree with you and I really like games that you can play with other people. I also like doing quizzes. I do lots of quizzes on my computer. Do you like quizzes?

A: No, not very much, but I love taking photographs. So, every time I go for a walk in the park I try to take beautiful photos of nature.

B: I don't like taking photos but I like looking at photos that my friends have taken, on Facebook for example.

A: Me too. That is always interesting and sometimes funny.

Examiner:

Do you think...

... painting is difficult?

... cooking is interesting?

... doing/finding quizzes is easy?

... taking photographs is fun?

... playing video games is boring?

Model answers

I think painting is difficult because it's hard to make/draw something (that) looks real.

I like cooking. It's nice to make food for your friends and family.

I think that playing video games is exciting because every time you can play a different game so you are never bored.

I like doing quizzes. However, sometimes they're a bit difficult so I ask my mother to help me.

I like taking photos. It's the only way to always remember places that you have visited.

Examiner:

So, Candidate A, which of these hobbies do you like best?

And you, Candidate B, which of these hobbies do you like best? Thank you.

Model answers

A: Taking photos is my favourite hobby. My camera is the first thing I take with me when I go out for a walk, or on a trip.

B: I think playing video games is what I like best. It's the most exciting thing to do when I have free time.

Phase 2 (2 minutes)

Do you prefer spending your free time alone or with other people and why?

Do you prefer doing things inside or outside and why?

Model answers

I prefer to spend my free time with my friends because I have more fun and I feel well when I'm with them.

If the weather is good I prefer to do things outside because I like to be in the sun and clean air. However, if it's cold, or when it's raining I prefer to be inside because I really hate bad weather.

Greg

I think a lot of people would say that my hobby is quite unusual these days. I collect stamps from all over the world. My hobby started many years ago when my uncle worked in many different countries. He sent letters and postcards to us with beautiful stamps on them. Also, my grandfather collects stamps and he helps me to make my collection bigger. I learn a lot about different countries because of my stamp collection and it has made me really good at geography. Actually, I am top of my geography class.

Our HobbiesSusie

I only started gardening as a hobby a few months ago. I was watching a TV programme about a family that grow all their own fruit and vegetables and I thought it was a really good idea. I didn't know it but I am really good at growing things. This month we have lots of salad vegetables and strawberries. Actually, we have too much food so I sell some of it to our neighbours. I am saving the money to buy some beautiful flowers for our garden. Sometimes gardening is really hard work but that's a good thing because it means that I don't need to go to the gym.

Alex

My hobby is snowboarding. I started snowboarding when I was very young. We were on holiday in Switzerland but I didn't like skiing with the rest of my family. I tried snowboarding instead and loved it. The big problem is that there isn't much snow where I live so I have to travel a lot and that is very expensive. My parents said I need to save my own money if I want to go snowboarding often, so I think I am going to find a new hobby very soon. But I am a bit sad about that.

PART 3 Questions 14-18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

My life as an actor by Tanya Robinson

My mother is an actor and my father is a musician. When I was sixteen, I started to work as an ice-cream seller in our local theatre but I always wanted to be an actor. But neither of my parents wanted me to act. They wanted me to go to university and get a job that pays lots of money.

When I started primary school, my school didn't teach drama. My mother didn't have time to teach me and she said that I couldn't have lessons at a drama school for children. What she didn't know was that one of my friends had a drama teacher come to her house and her parents let me do the lessons with her.

When I went to secondary school my drama teacher, Mrs Burton, said: "I have never seen such a good actor at your age. You could be famous one day." It was the first time someone made me believe that I could do what I wanted to do.

After secondary school I went to drama school. My parents were still not happy with my decision. My father said: "In the future you will wish that you had listened to us." This made me feel very sad as I wanted my parents to be happy for me. I almost changed my mind but I knew acting was the right thing for me to do.

Now of course I am famous. I have worked hard but I have also been lucky. Now my whole family agrees that I made all the right decisions when I was younger and my parents are very happy for me.

 - A. become an actor
 - B. get a job in a university

 - C. that she should only be an actor if her parents agree.
17. Tanya's father

 - B. made her change her plans.
 - C. made her feel happy about her decision.

Competition winners

Charles

Charles is sixteen and is a very good artist. He is so good that he won a competition that was held for students all over the United Kingdom. Each student had to do a painting on the subject of 'My country'. Most students painted a famous building or a beautiful landscape. Charles, however, surprised everyone by painting a traditional Sunday roast dinner! When he was asked why he chose such a strange subject, he said that eating a roast dinner with his family every Sunday was really important to him and this was the thing that he missed most when he visited other countries.

Maria

Maria was very happy when she won a competition to bake a birthday cake for the headteacher of her school. It was the first time that she had ever cooked anything. She found out on the internet what she needed to buy and what to do. She was going to ask her grandmother to help her because she makes beautiful cakes but then she decided to do it all by herself. Maria's prize was a cooking lesson with a TV chef. She can't wait to meet him!

Spiros

Spiros won a short story competition. The competition was open to anyone in his city who is under eighteen. Spiros has been writing stories for many years and he loves reading. PART 3 Questions 14-18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Sophia Capaldi – Young Businesswoman of the Year

Sophia Capaldi has just won the Young Businesswoman of the Year competition. She is the youngest woman to have ever won it. She comes from quite a poor family and when she was a child her parents couldn't buy her things that her friends had. That is when Sophia started to look on eBay and in shops that sell used or second-hand things at very low prices.

Sophia soon thought that she could buy things very cheaply and sell them again at a higher price. "It started as a hobby" she said. "But then I quickly started to make money and I spent more time buying and selling things until I started to earn a lot of money."

She had always planned to go to university but she was making so much money that she soon changed her plans. She preferred not to spend three years studying to get a good job because she was already earning a lot of money. "I think university life would be fun but I believe there will be enough time for me to have fun in the future" she said.

When she won the competition, she couldn't believe it. She hadn't even heard of the competition before. She was very happy and she felt that she had done something that none of her friends had ever done.

Now she is planning to find one or two people to work for her in the next few weeks as there is too much for her to do on her own. Also, she thinks it will be good to have some company during the day in the office because it can be a bit boring being her own boss.

14. What problem did Sophia have when she was a child?

Computer Games

Star City

Star City is a city-building game available for X-box, PlayStation, and Windows PC. Players have to build and look after a city in the future on another world. They have to decide what to do in an ever-changing city and be sure that the city and its people have everything they need to live. There are lots of problems and difficult things for the players to do but this makes the player think carefully so that they can make the best decision. This will probably help them in the real world. Players must be over eighteen years old to play this game.

Fast Drive

Fast Drive is a game that has lots of dangerous driving in it. Players are rewarded for driving on the wrong side of the road, driving into other cars or motorbikes, and creating problems all over a city. Parents of new teenage drivers might want to think about the fact that playing some racing games can make their children want to drive in such a way in real life. This game also has an online part that allows for chat, so each player will hear everything that other online players say.

Dinosaurs

What kid hasn't thought about how much fun it would be to have a pet dinosaur as a best friend, or maybe to go for a ride on the back of a fire-eating animal? Dinosaurs is perfect for children aged between 10 and 14. The players work with dinosaurs that they have found. The game is all about becoming friends with your dinosaur and it is like going on an adventure with a loved family pet that has big teeth. Sometimes the player has to repeat some actions too many times, which might be a bit boring, but most of the game is interesting.

PART 3 Questions 14-18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

The Three Peaks Challenge

My name is Shaun Perkins. I am seventeen years old and I have just done the famous Three Peaks Challenge. This is a walking challenge which means that you have to walk up three high mountains. I did it to get money for my local children's hospital because they had helped my brother when he was very sick.

I did the walk with a special group because it can be quite dangerous especially if the weather is bad. They have a guide who shows you where to walk. When we started on the first mountain, I was worried that it would be too difficult for me but actually it wasn't as bad as I thought it was going to be.

We did the walk in the summer so that the weather would be good. The first two mountains were lovely as the sun was shining. However, we were half way up the third mountain when a storm suddenly came. It was raining and there was a heavy thunderstorm. I was very afraid. No one was hurt but we did get very wet.

The most important thing about this challenge is the clothes you wear. That means you need good walking boots, trousers and jacket, and a hat for the sun. It doesn't matter what your clothes look like but they must be comfortable. Also, you need a small bag.

I had a brilliant time on the challenge even though it rained. I didn't really have many people to talk to but the places where we walked were really beautiful and I loved looking all around me, on the mountains.

14. Why did Shaun want to do the Three Peaks Challenge?
 - A. to help his brother get better
 - B. to help the hospital in his town
 - C. to pay for his brother's hospital bill
15. What does Shaun say about the first mountain?
 - A. It wasn't as much of a problem as he had thought.
 - B. It was very difficult to walk up.
 - C. The guide helped him when he got lost.
16. What happened to Shaun on the last mountain?
 - A. He got wet but he wasn't worried.
 - B. He had an accident because the weather was bad.
 - C. He was worried about the weather but it was OK in the end.
17. Shaun says that
 - A. you should take a big bag with you.
 - B. you need to wear the right clothes.

Three people talking about the internet

Karen

I think the internet is great. My cousins live in Australia and I really miss them. We use Skype to talk once a week and to tell each other our news. Also, my best friend lives in Germany at the moment because she works there so we talk on the internet nearly every day. It would be very expensive if we talked to each other on the phone but it doesn't cost us anything to talk on the internet.

Peter

The internet is a great way to have fun. I love playing games on my own and with my friends on the computer. I also play games with people that I have not met in real life. Some of them are even in different countries, which is exciting. Sometimes my friends at work think that I should stop playing because games can make you do bad things in real life. However, I'm clever enough to know the difference between games and real life. I wouldn't do anything bad.

Sue

I'm not really interested in playing games on the internet although most of my friends are. For me the best thing about the internet is that I can find information about everything. When my parents were young, they had to go to the library if they wanted to know about something for a project. I can be comfortable in my office and do all my work. Also, I am learning German on the internet. There is a fun website where you learn words by listening to songs in German. It's much better than my boring French classes when I was a student.

PART 3 Questions 14-18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Giving food to poor people

Katie Stagliano was only twelve when she thought of a way to help give food to poor people in her city. Katie had been watching a cooking programme with her mum who works as a waitress in a restaurant. On the programme they were making soups out of different kinds of vegetables and they were showing people how to make lots of food cheaply.

Cabbage was one of the vegetables that they used and so Katie started to grow some. She grew a ten-kilo cabbage in her garden. That cabbage was big enough to make food for 275 people at her local soup cafe where people who are hungry can go and get free food.

Katie said, "When I saw how many hungry people had soup from my cabbage I thought that it doesn't have to be difficult or expensive to help people".

Katie adds, "It also gave me the idea for my business, Katie's Gardens, which builds vegetable gardens so that food can be grown and given to the poor. We don't make any money but everyone working with us takes food for free. We grow lots of fruit and vegetables and take them to places all over the city."

Three teenagers talk about cinema

Michael

I go to the cinema about once a month, usually on a Saturday. I like films about the police catching the bad people. I prefer the American police films because there are faster cars. I like the action in the police films, not the science part. My mum and dad don't like going to the cinema; they prefer watching films online. So they never come with me, but that's OK because I always go with my friend Jane.

Josh

Funny films are the best because I love to laugh a lot. I go on Thursdays because it's half price for students. I never go at the weekend. I don't like cartoons because I want to see real people as actors. There are some funny films my parents won't let me see because they are for adults, but my brother takes me to see them. He tells the cinema staff that I am over eighteen. Sometimes they find us in the middle of the film and ask us to leave.

Mark

I always like films about true stories. It is a different way to learn about history, geography and science. Watching such films sometimes helps me with my homework. I also like films which show different places around the world. After watching these kinds of films, I dream about going to these places and look at the places on Google maps. Some of these films are very well made but there are also a lot of bad films that I don't enjoy watching. I go to the cinema on Fridays. However, I would prefer to go at the weekend because there are special ticket offers, but I can't, as I have a weekend job.

Archie Campbell talks about computer games

I started playing computer games when I was seven years old. My parents didn't let me have a computer so I used to go to my cousin's house and play games on his computer when his mum and dad were at work. My parents would have been very angry if they had known that.

My cousin Freddie showed me how to play games that older children usually play and he said that I was much better than most of his friends who were three years older than me. I was going to ask my parents again for a computer but he told me to wait for another year, at least.

Then I started to have computer lessons at school. That was when everything changed. I learned how to make programmes and I started to make my own games with my cousin's help. From that time, I knew that making games was all I would ever want to do.

I didn't say anything to my parents for a long time. Freddie's parents didn't know what we were doing, either. Then one evening it was parents' day at my school and my computer teacher told them that I had a brilliant future making computer games.

Now I am 20 and I enjoy student life. I have already sold one game to a small computer company but I don't have much time to make games now because I have a lot of exams soon. However, two computer companies have said they want to talk to me as soon as I leave university because they want me on their team.

Young teachers

Peter

Peter works at a school in a village. He lives with two other teachers in a guest-house for free. The house is only a five-minute walk to school. The school is very small; only sixty pupils go there. The school has a small library and a small hall which can be used for indoor sports and meetings. There isn't a lot of outdoor space, which means there isn't enough room for students to play sports outside.

Ken

Ken works at a very big school with over eight hundred students and forty teachers. The school is in the middle of a very big city. He rents a house which is far away from school, so he goes there by bus. The school has pupils as well as teachers who have different nationalities. The school has everything the students need. There is another building next to the school where different sports can be played, a large cafeteria and a very big library. There are no outdoor sports.

Nick

Nick works at a school in the countryside, far away from any village or town. During the term, he lives at the school and goes home for the holidays. He sometimes goes home at the weekends, too. He is a very good teacher like most of the teachers who work there. This is why parents have to pay a lot of money to send their children there. His school has a lot of land with three football fields, one rugby field and one cricket field. The school also has two very large swimming pools, one inside the school and the other one outside. The school has about five hundred students.

A family who loves animals

Everyone in the Collins family loves animals. These days Anna Collins has stopped working as a doctor and she spends her days selling pet food, toys and just about everything an animal could need. In her free time she walks her dog.

Anna's daughter, Georgia, also loves animals and was very happy when they finally got a dog, two years ago. She had wanted a cat when she was little but they all agreed that a rabbit was a much better pet for a little girl. Now, of course, she has many different animals all around her at home.

The reason for this is that Georgia's father, Jack, owns an animal shelter. This is where animals are brought when they have no home or owner. Jack says, "We never say no if an animal needs our help and they come and go all the time. We always try to find them new homes with kind people."

Georgia understands that the animals they save need a good home and it's a good thing if they don't have too many animals to look after. She still finds it difficult when a new animal that someone has left on the street or hurt in some way comes to them. "I don't understand how anyone could do that," she says.

Georgia wants to work with animals when she leaves school so every weekend, when her friends go shopping, she goes to her Saturday job. She helps collect eggs from the chickens and gives water to the cows. "It's the best job" she says. "I love working outside".

14. What is Anna's job now?
